Sunday Message: Warren – 2 Thessalonians 1:1-12
God's Purposes in Our Plans

1. Our ultimate vision for SGC is to continue to remain faithful to gospel proclamation and making disciples in a gospel-centered church. As you participate in the life of this local expression of the Body of Christ, what do you think remaining faithful to the gospel might look like for you in 2018?
2. Have you ever considered that when you demonstrate faith, love and endurance amid health issues or circumstantial and relational challenges, your endurance strongly testifies to the value of God over all other things? Realizing this, what do you think stands out most sharply in your life in this regard as you endure difficulties? To help better answer this question, consider asking a family member or friend to share their observations of how you do in this area.
3. How would you describe what living for God looks like? Share about a choice or decision that you have made in which you embraced an eternal perspective and lived out your biblical convictions. How do you think that choice has made a difference for the Kingdom of God?
