Sunday Message: Joshua Gilmore – 2 Corinthians 2:12-17
God's Power in Our Weakness: Rest for the Restless Christian

1. The Apostle Paul was conflicted as he walked through challenging circumstances in his ministry, and this led to unrest in his spirit. However, his focus remained on his identity as a captive of his victorious Lord. How can your identity as a slave of Jesus Christ be sacrificial, yet also still be triumphant?
2. How might this perspective help you give thanks to God when you're going through situations of unrest or difficulty?
3. In our walk with the Lord, we will at times experience difficult circumstances, personal hardships and uncharitable judgments by others. How are you encouraged to remain faithful to Paul's appeal in 2 Corinthians 2:17 to maintain integrity as you "speak in Christ" and to not compromise your witness?
