Title: Where to Look for Hope

Text: 1 Peter 3:18-22

Main Points:

1. We find our hope in Christ's unique suffering.
2. We find our hope in Christ's great victory.
3. We find our hope in Christ's absolute exaltation.

Application Questions:

1. How does the fact that "Jesus died once for all" (1 Peter 3:18, Hebrews 9:26-28) make a difference in your life, especially when you're experiencing guilt and shame over your sin?
2. What do you think Peter is saying in 3:19? Which other parts of scripture help inform your understanding of that verse?
3. How does Jesus' triumph over sin and death and then his exaltation help your perspective in your own trials or challenging circumstances?
4. Who could you share with this week about the hope and peace that your resurrected, exalted and coming-again Lord brings to your life?
