Sunday Message: Joe Carnuccio

Title: A Godly Husband's Calling

Text: 1 Peter 3:7

Main Idea:

A husband is called to glorify God in the ways that he relates to his wife.

Main Points:

- I. God's call for husbands:
 1. A godly husband lives intentionally with his wife.
 2. A godly husband knows and considers his wife.
 - a. An understanding husband knows his wife.
 - b. An understanding husband considers his wife.
 3. A godly husband respects his wife.
 - a. A husband who respects his wife cherishes her.
 - b. A husband who respects his wife values her.
- II. God's warning to husbands:
 1. Prayers can be blocked.
 2. How a husband relates to his wife impacts how God responds to his prayers.

Application Questions:

1. Husbands: Christ is described as both a shepherd and a servant to his people. How is your leadership in the home a reflection of these Christ-like traits?
2. Single Men: How does your behavior in general reflect an attitude of love and service to others?
3. Husbands: God dwells with his people and knows them intimately. How are you doing in endeavoring to dwell with your wife?
4. Husbands: How well do you know your wife?
5. Husbands: In what ways are you attentive to your wife's emotional, physical and spiritual welfare?

6. Single Men: In what ways are you honoring and respecting women by having regard for their feelings, desires, and rights? In what ways are you not being considerate this way?
7. Husbands and Singles: In what ways is God convicting you of how you're not honoring your wife, or women in general? How does the gospel strengthen you face sin and areas of failure and embrace needed change?
