Sunday Message: Warren – 2 Corinthians 7:2-16
God's Power In Our Weakness: Gospel Grace for Relational Difficulty

1. Have you ever experienced relational strain with another Christian to the degree to which Paul experienced it with the Corinthian church? If so, how do you typically respond when this happens? What did you learn from Paul's example and response?
2. Paul distinguishes between godly sorrow and worldly sorrow. Why does this distinction matter, and how could understanding the difference be helpful to you?
3. Paul did not abandon his responsibility to care for others, and therefore sent a third letter to the Corinthians whose content was firm and honest but also painful for them to hear. The result was that the Corinthians experienced a godly sorrow and took concrete steps to move towards repentance and reconciliation. What do you think motivated Paul to not give up on them but rather, to assume the best in those who were hurting him and move toward them in hope?
4. How did this message help encourage you to faithfully maintain unity within the body of Christ?
