Sunday Message – Warren Boettcher
Proverbs 18:21

1. How we speak matters, because our words have power to either heal or hurt others. When you reflect on the words you use and the implications of your speech towards others, what comes to mind?
2. Jesus mentioned that we will be held accountable for every careless word that we have spoken. If you had to give an account today for your speech, what would be the problematic areas?
3. Our word problems are--at their root--really heart problems. What do you think is going on in your heart that might be influencing how you speak?
4. Our speech is meant to reflect and promote holiness in ourselves and others, and is an indicator of our spiritual maturity. How well do you seek understanding by first listening and asking questions before you share your opinion?
